The Company is pleased to announce that lease agreements for 5 retail spaces within its Mall have been concluded with the Big Bon Group. The Group is keen to showcase its most popular brands, namely Bershka, Pull&Bear, Stradivarius, Oysho, and Massimo Dutti, within the retail complex which aims at providing an eclectic and holistic shopping experience for its customers.

The Company anticipates that these premier brands will contribute to the exciting mix of retail, fashion, catering, entertainment, and leisure which will be made available, each bringing their own unique style and fashion to the forefront and underlining its Mall as the premier shopping destination in the Maltese Islands, with the added values of a beautiful waterfront location and a car-free, child-safe and pet-friendly environment.

The Company remains committed to launch its retail Mall by Q3 of this year and anticipates that the collaboration with the Big Bon Group, amongst others, will bring this new retail space to life and create a brand-new destination.
